

PEER EDIT

Answer with the following: Y = Yes, N = No, NW = Needs Work

Overall Appearance:

Double-spaced?

Paragraphs indented?

Size 12 - readable font?

PDs in correct format?

Works Cited in correct format?

Introduction:

Attention-grabber or Hook: Did it interest you and focus your attention on the subject matter of the speech?

Thesis statement: Did it clearly state the content of the speech and was it only one sentence and bold?

Did the introduction (introduce) include the 3 main points? Name the three categories (main points) you think the writer covered:

_____ / _____ / _____

Transition: Was there a transition into the 1st category of the body? If so, what was the transition word? _____

Body:

Category 1: _____

Did the paragraph thoroughly cover category one?

Was there a transition into category two? _____

Category 2: _____

Did the paragraph thoroughly cover category two?

Was there a transition into category three? _____

Category 3: _____

Did the paragraph thoroughly cover category three?

Was there a transition into conclusion? _____

Was the body well organized (presented in a logical order)?

If not - why?

Conclusion:

Did the conclusion include the thesis statement again in bold?

Did the conclusion sum up the three speech categories?

Was the speech confusing or easy to understand? C or E

Were there grammar/spelling errors that you circled when editing?

What was the writing level? (See readability on spell check)

Must be a 10+

What was the time recorded for the reading of the speech?

Must be in 5 minute range (5 to 5:59)

Do you feel this speech meets the requirements of the assignment?

If not, why? (check the following that need work)

--Under/over 5 minutes

--Written below 10+ level

--Not organized well

--Confusing or hard to understand

--topic too broad - did not thoroughly inform

--no hook to catch my attention

--no clear thesis statement

--no clear categories or not three categories

--does not include transitions

--grammar and spelling issues

--does not include PDs (or formatted wrong)

--does not include Works Cited page (or formatted wrong)

--Run-ons or sentence fragments