WHAT'S BEEN GOING ON?

Parades, Parades, Parades! Severy Labor Day Parade

The Greenwood County CattleWomen once again had a strong presence at the annual Severy Labor Day celebration held Monday, September 5. The CattleWomen's float committee for the event was made up of Loria Howard and Heather Fuesz. Parade participants were Sutton and Corrine Nelson, Alyssa and Danielle Howard and Cash Fuesz. The children dressed as pioneers and complimented the float's theme "BEEF - Pioneering Great Taste for 150 Years in Kansas." The float's theme brought awareness to the Kansas Beef industry and the Kansas Sequential celebration. The float received second place in the organization division giving the CattleWomen $30.

CattleMen's Day Parade!

The officer team is using the wagon that Heather Fuesz used at Severy for the Cattlemen's Day parade. The parade is on Saturday, Nov. 6th. Our theme is "BEEF - Pioneering Great Taste for 150 Years in Kansas." Rachel Collinge is going as a '30s buckaroo cowgirl, Christina Harrison's outfit is a surprise, and Beth Ireland is going as a pioneer. What are you going to wear? For more information contact: Christina Harrison charrison@389ks.org 583-2136. We would love all of you join us in the float- bring the kids!

Day on the Farm

Lynnie Teter, Pam Cowley, Sue Erickson and Marilyn Brink are going to be presenting on by-products to approximately 100 children present at Day on the Farm. They will be using a steer hide for them to feel plus a board on by-products. It is on October 6th, at the Sowder residence near Virgil/Toronto area. The kids love this day! To help Lynnie, contact her at tetterville@hughes.net or 583-5809.

Winners of Father's Day/Mother's Day Drawings

Congrats to the Father's Day Beef Giveaway Winners: Josh Wells (Eureka), Doug Rayburn (Hamilton), and B.J. Harlan (Madison)!!! Each father received a FREE steak package. Drawings were held in the GW Co. Library. Carolyn Perrier, Carol Ann Flock and Beth Ireland served on this committee.

Daycare @ Cattlemen's Banquet

Trade Show

Stop by the 12th Annual Western Trade Show! This year the show will be held in the Greenwood Hotel from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday. We have several new vendors this year as well as many that have been at previous shows. If you know of someone that would be interested in being a vendor contact a committee member: Anna Curry, Camille Frakes, Patsy Garner, Katie Greenwood or Stephanie Nelson. The Trade Show will be putting together a book of Beef Recipes and useful information about our product. A BIG thank you to all those who have turned in recipes, they all sound delicious.

If you have any recipes you would like to have included in the book - send them to Katie Greenwood: 2274 S Road, Eureka or email them to sk.greenwood@live.com.

Hay Bales at Businesses

Stephanie Nelson and Charlene Baker are working on having the businesses with hay bale themes to promote beef before Cattlemen's. Want to help? Contact Stephanie Nelson jscnelson@yahoo.com or 583-3197.

Meatless Monday

Abby Stever and Breana Samuels are doing an FCCLA (Family, Career, Community Leaders of America) project on Meatless Mondays to educate our community about why beef is healthy and nutritional for you and cutting meat out of your diet is not beneficial. 'Meatless Monday' initiative is encouraged by the Taste of Home magazine and other organizations. Interested in helping? Contact Katie sk.greenwood@live.com or [Beth Ireland bireland@389ks.org](mailto:Beth Ireland bireland@389ks.org).

Pie Auction at Cattlemen's Banquet

The FCCLA (Family, Career & Community Leaders of America) will be having a pie auction at the Cattlemen's Banquet. Donations will go toward the Meatless Monday project, and other nutrition projects beef-related for personal growth and leadership projects.
